

North Tyneside Council are currently awaiting a decision on a bid made to the Heritage Lottery Fund for funding for a Townscape Heritage Initiative scheme for the Fish Quay, North Shields. If successful, the scheme would operate between 2007 and 2012 and have a fund of £1 million that we could allocate as grants for the repair and restoration of historic buildings, and for improvements in the public realm at the Fish Quay.