COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF NORTH TYNESIDE (ST COLUMBAS CHURCH, GREAT NORTH ROAD, WIDEOPEN, NEWCASTLE UPON TYNE) TREE PRESERVATION ORDER 2002

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (TREES) REGULATIONS 1999

THIS IS A FORMAL NOTICE to let you know that on 21 March 2002 the Council made the above Tree Preservation Order.

A copy of the Order is enclosed. In simple terms, the Order means no one is allowed to cut down, top or lop without the Council's permission any of the trees described in the 1st Schedule of the Order and shown on the map.

A certified copy of the Order and map are available for inspection at the offices of the Quasi-Judicial Office, Town Hall, High Street East, Wallsend between 08.30am and 5.00pm on Mondays to Thursdays and 08.30am and 4.30pm on Fridays.

The Council has made the Order because the Council is of the opinion that the trees covered by the proposed Tree Preservation Order are worthy of preservation due to their visual amenity to the area. The Council's Landscape Architect recently undertook a survey of the trees and the land and was of the opinion that the trees were healthy specimens contributing positively to the amenity value of the area. They are visible from the public highway and are therefore worthy of inclusion within a Tree Preservation Order. This Tree Preservation Order is also required to replace the existing "North Gosforth Rectory" Tree Preservation Order 1976 given that the existing plan was found to be out of date and not affording protection to a number of trees on the site.

The Order came into force, on a temporary basis, on 21 March 2002, and will remain in force for six months. During this time the Council will decide whether the Order should be given permanent status.

People affected by the Order have a right to object or make comments on any of the trees or woodlands covered before the Council decides whether the Order should be made permanent.

If you would like to make any objections or comments, you must submit them in writing within 28 days from the date of this notice. Your comments must comply with Regulation 4 of the Town and Country Planning (Trees) Regulations 1999 which is set out over the page. Please send your comments to the Quasi-Judicial Office, Town Hall, High Street East, Wallsend, NE28 7RR before 22 April 2002. The Council will carefully consider all objections and comments before deciding whether to make the order permanent.

You will be notified of the Council's decision on whether to confirm the Order. In the meantime, if you would like any more information or have any questions about this notice, please contact Brian McNally on 200 7005.

Dated 21 March 2002

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF NORTH TYNESIDE (ST COLUMBAS CHURCH, GREAT NORTH ROAD, WIDEOPEN, NEWCASTLE UPON TYNE) TREE PRESERVATION ORDER 2002

The Council of the Borough of North Tyneside in exercise of the powers conferred on them by Sections 198 [201¹] and 203 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990² hereby make the following Order:-

Citation

1. This Order may be cited as the Council of the Borough of North Tyneside (St Columbas Church, Great North Road, Wideopen, Newcastle upon Tyne) Tree Preservation Order 2002.

Interpretation

2. In this Order "the authority" means the Council of the Borough of North Tyneside and unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in this Order to a numbered section is a reference to the section so numbered in the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

[Application of Section 201]

3. The authority hereby direct that Section 201 (provisional tree preservation orders) shall apply to this Order and, accordingly, this Order shall take effect provisionally on

Prohibited acts in relation to trees

4. Without prejudice to sub-sections (6) and (7) of Section 198 (power to make tree preservation orders)³ [or sub-section (3) of Section 200 (orders affecting land where Forestry Commissioners interested)], and subject to Article 5, no person shall:-
 - (a) cut down, top, lop, uproot, wilfully damage or wilfully destroy; or

¹ Under Section 199(1), tree preservation orders generally do not take effect until confirmed, but a direction may be given under Section 201 for an order to take provisional effect immediately.

As to the circumstances in which the consent of the Forestry Commission is required (and should be cited) see Section 200(1) of the Act.

³ Sub-section (6) of Section 198 exempts from the application of tree preservation orders the cutting down, uprooting, topping or lopping of trees which are dying, dead or have become dangerous, or the undertaking of those acts in compliance with obligations imposed by or under an Act of Parliament or so far as may be necessary for the prevention or abatement of a nuisance. Sub-section (7) of that section makes Section 198 subject to Section 39(2) of the Housing and Planning Act 1986 (c 63) (saving for effect of Section 2(4) of the Opencast Coal Act 1958 on land affected by a tree preservation order despite its repeal) and Section 15 of the Forestry Act 1967 (c 10) (licences under that Act to fell trees comprised in a tree preservation order).

- (b) cause or permit the cutting down, topping, lopping, uprooting, wilful damage or wilful destruction of, any tree specified in Schedule 1 to this Order or comprised in a group of trees or in a woodland so specified, except with the consent of the authority and, where such consent is given subject to conditions, in accordance with those conditions.

- (g) without prejudice to section 198(6)(b), the felling or lopping of a tree or the cutting back of its roots by or at the request of, or in accordance with a notice served by, a licence holder under paragraph 9 of Schedule 4 to the Electricity Act 1989⁷.

9.(5) Sub-sections (3) to (5) of Section 11 (terms of compensation on refusal of licence) of the Forestry Act 1967 shall apply to the assessment of compensation under paragraph (3) as it applies to the assessment of compensation where a felling licence is refused under Section 10 (application for felling licence and decision of Commissioners thereon) of that Act as if for any reference to a felling licence there were substituted a reference to a consent required under this Order and for the reference to the Commissioners there were substituted a reference to the authority.
