accessible toilets (1 x toilet).
Customers can participate in brick-building activities including free-play areas, building stations and other creative activities, or visit the café for food and refreshments.
The premises provide approximately 50 customer seats internally, together with an external pavement seating area immediately outside the premises comprising four tables with approximately 12 seats. The external seating area is operated subject to the relevant pavement licence and any conditions attached to it.
Alcohol will be served from the existing café service counter. There will be no separate dedicated bar and no self-service alcohol area.
Alcohol stock will be kept behind the café counter and in secure staff-only storage areas.
The premises are intended to remain primarily a café, leisure and creative activity venue. Alcohol will be ancillary to the café, food, brick-building activities and social experience. The premises will not operate as a public house, nightclub or alcohol-led venue.
Families and children will continue to be welcome while alcohol is being sold although the premises may also host adult only brick-building sessions, private functions and special events, subject to the same responsible alcohol-service arrangements.
Customers may consume alcohol with or without food and with or without participating in the brick-building experience.
There will be no provision for off-sales of alcohol.

If 5,000 or more people are expected to attend the premises at any one time, state the number expected to attend

Section 18 of 21

LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

Bricks & Brews will operate primarily as a café and brick-building leisure venue, with alcohol being ancillary to the café, food, creative activities and social experience.
Alcohol will be supplied for consumption on the premises only and will be served by authorised staff from the existing café service counter.
There will be no self-service alcohol and no separate dedicated bar.
A Challenge 25 policy will operate for all alcohol sales.
Staff involved in alcohol sales will receive appropriate training covering responsible alcohol service, age verification, underage sales, proxy purchasing, intoxication, refusals and incident management.
Alcohol will be stored securely behind the café counter and in staff-only storage areas.
CCTV will operate throughout the premises, including coverage of the entrance and café service area.
An incident and refusal log will be maintained and made available to the relevant authorities where appropriate.
Management will monitor the operation of the premises and take reasonable and proportionate steps to promote the four licensing objectives.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

All alcohol sales will be made by authorised and appropriately trained staff.
The premises will operate a Challenge 25 policy.
Any person who appears to be under 25 years of age will be required to provide acceptable photographic identification before alcohol is supplied.
Acceptable identification will include a valid passport, photocard driving licence or other recognised age-verification identification bearing a PASS hologram.
Staff will be instructed not to sell alcohol where appropriate identification cannot be produced or where there is any doubt regarding the customer's age.
Staff will be trained to identify and refuse sales where there is a concern regarding proxy purchasing or the supply of alcohol to an intoxicated person.
Refused sales and significant alcohol-related incidents will be recorded in an incident/refusal log.
Alcohol stock will be kept behind the service counter and in secure staff-only storage areas. Customers will not have access to alcohol stock.
CCTV will operate within the premises, with cameras covering key areas including the entrance and café service counter.
CCTV recordings will be retained in accordance with the premises' CCTV procedure and made available to the police or other Responsible Authorities where lawfully requested.
Management will cooperate with the police and other Responsible Authorities in relation to any concerns arising from the operation of the premises.

c) Public safety

The premises will be operated as a managed café and leisure venue with appropriate arrangements for the safe movement of customers, staff and children.
Staff will monitor customer behaviour and will take reasonable action where behaviour presents a safety risk.
Alcohol will only be supplied by trained and authorised staff.
No alcohol will be supplied to a person who appears intoxicated.
Existing emergency, evacuation and fire-safety procedures will apply during all trading and licensed activities.

© Crown copyright

The external pavement seating area will be managed in accordance with the relevant pavement licence and any associated conditions.
Customers may occasionally stand during activities or events where appropriate. The premises will not operate as a vertical-drinking venue.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Bricks & Brews will operate primarily as a café and brick-building leisure venue and will not operate as a nightclub, late-night drinking establishment or alcohol-led venue.
The premises will not provide DJs or nightclub-style entertainment.
Normal background music may be played as part of the café environment.
Management will take reasonable steps to minimise disturbance to neighbouring properties and the surrounding area.
Staff will monitor customer behaviour and will intervene where necessary to prevent unreasonable noise or disorder.
Customers leaving the premises, particularly during evening functions, will be encouraged to do so in a considerate manner.
The external pavement seating area will be managed responsibly and in accordance with the relevant pavement licence and any conditions attached to it.
The applicant does not propose off-sales of alcohol. Alcohol purchased under this licence will therefore be for consumption on the premises only.

e) The protection of children from harm

Bricks & Brews is a family-focused venue and children will routinely be present while alcohol is being supplied.
Children will not be permitted to purchase or consume alcohol.
A Challenge 25 policy will operate for all alcohol sales.
Staff will receive training on age verification, underage sales and proxy purchasing and will be instructed to refuse sales where appropriate identification cannot be produced or where there is any doubt about the customer's age.
Alcohol will be stored behind the café counter and in staff-only storage areas and will not be accessible to children.
Staff will be expected to take reasonable action where alcohol consumption or customer behaviour creates a concern for the welfare or safety of children.
There will be no blanket prohibition on children attending during evening trading or private functions. The premises will continue to operate as a managed family café and leisure venue rather than an alcohol-led establishment.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

© Crown copyright

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is A British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
  - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
  - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
  - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
    - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
    - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
    - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
    - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

(i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
(ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
(iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
(iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
(v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

© Crown copyright

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
